Those born on the 19th have an energised month ahead. The days with the extra 9 in them are energy surge days for you – use them well. Being in touch with your soul-urges on the 8th will lead you to win in any challenge.

1st, 10th & 28th

Challenging your boundaries is good for you; your number 1 energy will enhance most days this month and make you feel physically active, alive and vibrant. Your social status is high in the last week of the month. Make the most of it by holding a dinner party and inviting in new friends.

3rd, 21st & 30th

The extra fire in September will be to your liking; you will find that you can get along easily with most people. Be aware of your strength in creativity as it is as important as your mental strength to help you solve problems this month.

4th, 13th & 31st

This is a month where all your best laid plans will work. You are operating on many different levels and they all seem to agree with you. Things just seem to flow for you and you will be in the right place at the right time. Enjoy the humanitarian side of you nature as it will also be heightened.

14th & 23rd

Be prepared to combine both logic and intuition to come out the winner. You will think and feel very clearly and this will help you to resolve any family-related issues which may crop up.

6th & 15th

Your number 6 energy dances oh so beautifully with this number 9 month. Relax and be yourself for you are going to be appreciated for the little things that you say and do. Love is all around you from the 23rd onwards – let others love you for who you are – you are magnificent!

7th, 16th & 25th

Hang in there and don't give up on your ideas; success is yours with focus and perseverance. When you know what to say just say it! This is a great month for you to experiment a little with other ways of looking at your health.

8th, 17th & 26th.

This month has a humanitarian theme for you and it is important that you go by the old saying, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." Random acts of kindness lighten your energy as well as the energy of others.

18th and 27th

Laying foundations is important; loosen up a bit to get the most out of what is presented to you. Delightful social and business experiences are coming your way; you can mix it with the best of them and not lose your sense of self.

11th & 29th

Fire up your ideals and charge forth with renewed vigour! Determination pays off for you, especially on the 15th when the numbers stack up in your favour. Program your mind with positive affirmations to make the most of the extra drive you have this month.

12th

Your good balance of masculine and feminine energies will give you the edge. Feel your way rather than think through any obstacles and you will make the most of your heightened perceptions. Especially favourable days for you are the 8th and 23rd.

20th

Be brave and go on a journey to unknown and untapped parts of your own and others' psyches. You are so perceptive that you will need to pay attention to the here and now, as that is where you will find answers for your long-outstanding issues. Resolving old blockages will free you to go forward with renewed energy in October.

22nd

This is the month for you to challenge all your old outdated beliefs that you have about yourself. Take yourself to the edge and you will fly. You need to be ready to push open doors for yourself in the coming months and it won't be easy for you if you haven't cleared your old limiting patterns and beliefs.

Are you prepared to listen to your own inner doctor? If your body gives you signs this month, please pay attention. Medical matters are highlighted and the 8th is a particularly insightful day for you.

OCTOBER

The number 10 is considered to be the first of the master numbers. These are numbers which have significance on their own and are not generally broken down to a single digit. According to the teachings of Pythagoras, who was considered to be the father of numerology, the number 10 is the perfect number as it is the sum of 1, 2, 3 and 4.

In numerology when zero is added to any number it is considered to enhance the qualities of the original number, some say ten times. The number 10 is the number for the gifted physical self.

The theme for October 2006 is wisdom gained from your experiences. This is a month where the combination of numbers, especially with the 3 x 0, indicates unpredictability and enhanced emotions and ideals. Be happy to dance to the beat of your own drum and practise detachment from whatever it is that is bothering you and you will learn from this month what you need to bring you into a new awareness of yourself and your part in the bigger picture.

October 2006 can bring with it some difficulties if you try to stick too rigidly to formality and structure. This is a month where going with the flow and creating your own flow becomes paramount to success for the months ahead. Be creative and only buy into that which you are comfortable with in your current belief system because if you go too far into other people's stuff, you will miss a grand opportunity to see what you are truly made of. Go forth and enjoy the adventure of learning about that which is unexpressed within.

For those born on the 3rd, 10th, 12th, 19th and 30th the number patterns for October 2006 indicate that THIS IS YOUR MONTH!

For those born on the 3rd centre stage calls you and you will do brilliantly if you answer. Express who you are and know that it will get you a long way towards your goals. The 19th is a brilliant day for you to trust your eye for detail and gain from a rare opportunity.

Those born on the 10th have connections to make which will work in your favour in the coming months. Your charm and charisma shine so well for you this entire month that your gifts and talents will be noticed. On the 19th there is a gift for you if you are ready to take it.

If you are born on the 12th this is a month to put in effort to get in tune with the vibes of the day before you rise each morning; be flexible and have fun with the twists and turns that this October 2006 adventure will present you! The 3rd is a day for you to create your own openings using your good humour.

Charismatic and influential; this is how those born on the 19th will be for this entire month. Be prepared to capitalise on this by taking all opportunities that come your way; say "yes" to life and push your doors wide open especially on the 3rd and 30th.

Being born on the 30th gets you noticed more than usual this month. Your strong expressive nature and your unpredictability will be very attractive to others. This is not a month for you to hide; get out and enjoy every moment! On the 19th look for little hidden things as they mean more than you know.

1st & 28th

Make the most of group gatherings; mixing business with pleasure works beautifully for you this month. Expressing
