NOVEMBER

The number 11 is the master number for focus and intent; it represents the statement "where energy goes energy flows".

The theme for November 2006 is expressing your gifts and talents. The journey will involve the conscious use of your thoughts and actions and the understanding that energy is just energy until you give it a purpose. What will you do with the magical potentials that come with every 11th month? Whatever you do, do it with a purpose and with clear and conscious intent.

The 11th of the 11th holds magical qualities in numerology. This is a day to clearly focus on what you want to achieve in the coming year; cast your wishes and spells to your guides and the universe for your desires and wants for your own future. Be crystal clear about YOUR own desires without involving others and you will enter into the magic that it is said that this day holds.

It would be a lovely exercise for you to set aside this day to at least hear clearly what you are putting out by your thoughts and actions; manifestation can work in the most mysterious of ways!
